PATRICIA GILBERT IS NAMED NLRB
ACTING DIRECTOR OF INFORMATION

Patricia M. Gilbert has been named Acting Director of Information of the National Labor Relations Board by Chairman Robert J. Battista.

A career NLRB employee, Ms. Gilbert has served in the Division of Information since 1986, first as a Writer-Editor. She was promoted to Supervisory Writer-Editor in 1992, and to Associate Director of Information in 2000.

From 1985-1986, Ms Gilbert was Assistant Chief of the Docket, Order and Issuance Section of the Executive Secretary's Office. She joined the NLRB in 1973 as a clerk in the Division of Judges, transferring in 1974 to the Executive Secretary's Office.

The Division of Information is responsible for media relations, public information and the NLRB Web site. Among her responsibilities, Ms. Gilbert has supervised the Weekly Summary of NLRB Cases, coordinated editing and production of the NLRB annual report, and assisted in managing the Web site.

Ms. Gilbert resides in the District of Columbia with her husband John.
